Re: American Steamship Owners Mutual P & I Ass'n, Inc. v. African Shipping
Compagny et al., 07 Civ. 9349 (LTS)
Our file: 2600026

Dear Judge Swain:

We are attorneys for plaintiff in this Rule B attachment action and we submit the following letter pursuant to our conversation with Your Honor's chambers today, and write to request an adjournment of the pretrial conference scheduled for Friday, June 20, 2008 at 9:45 a.m.

Plaintiff is a New York based marine protection and indemnity club and provided marine insurance coverage to vessels owned and managed by the defendants. Defendants, African Shipping Compagny and Compagnie de Management D'Orbigny Armement et Service Technique, who have offices in the Congo and in France respectively, subsequently failed to pay $45,499.23 in insurance premiums due and owing. As a result, plaintiff commenced the instant Rule B attachment matter to obtain pre-judgment security on its claim for owed premiums.

CONNECTICUT OFFICE:

19 COVENTRY LANE
RIVERSIDE, CT 06878
TEL: (203) 661-2355 FAX: (203) 661-2577

Plaintiff has been continually serving garnishees with the process of maritime attachment and garnishment since October 19, 2007. To date the only assets attached are $1,303.00 in funds which were restrained by UBS AG bank on April 14, 2008, and which were recently placed into the Court's Registry on consent.

Plaintiff has provided notice of this attachment to defendants, but to date, defendants have not appeared in this action.

In light of the fact that defendants have still not made an appearance in this matter, plaintiff respectfully submits that there is no reason to hold a pretrial conference in this matter at this time, and respectfully requests that the presently scheduled conference be adjourned for sixty (60) days.

This will be plaintiff's third request for an extension as plaintiff was previously granted sixty (60) day extensions on January 25, 2008, and March 31, 2008.

We thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Lyons & Flood, LLP
